

'We Are One' Summits @ 2022/23

A state/province wise Unity Consciousness Movement across the world

A Quantum Leap in the Evolution of Human Consciousness

THE WORLD UNITED (TWU) is a non-profit foundation which aims at awakening the unconditional unity consciousness of the world by way of inviting, collaborating with all the forces of truth across the world – As a part of that, TWU has initiated many workshops, symposiums and conferences at a regional and global level – the latest being the World Parliament on Spirituality (WPS) – 3rd edition done continent wise with 1,000 spiritual leaders from all the nations of the world

TWU is not governed by a single individual or an organised philosophy – it's run by council of members all over the world

As a part of the unity which is more important than uniformity, we are initiating 'We Are One' Summits @ 2022 (online) state/province wise – the central theme is Union Within leads to Unity Without

Aims & Objectives of event WAO

The main aim, objective and purpose of the event are to awaken and amplify the unconditional unity consciousness. As a part of this unity consciousness movement, we are inviting speakers to showcase their wisdom in various aspects of spiritual awakening and also join hands to take initiative and leadership for the same from their places of stay and origin. This is the era when all forces of truth wherever they are need to join together for uplifting the human consciousness.

Each speaker is considered as a truth warrior

The event WAO is a speaker's platform – each speaker is considered not as a guest but as a host and co-creator of the event as the only aim, purpose and the outcome of the event are to create the unconditional unity consciousness among the speakers who are treated as spiritual leaders. Kindly forward this to the prospective speakers whom you think are suitable to participate in this historical series of 'We Are One' Summits.

Each speaker is also expected to forward the event details to their databases and activate the message of unity among them

Please invite

- Please invite all the spiritual speakers who can impact the masses in terms of inner awakening apart from all those who can impact various enlisted applied spiritual themes
- Please take the inspiring messages of various celebrities of business, sportsmen, film and music, social activists, media persons etc.
- The event@WAO contains Chief Guest, Guests of Honour and Special guests during the inauguration and valediction of the event
- This event contains inspiring messages from the suitable governmental heads, bureaucrats, policy makers etc.

Event Platform

It will be on Zoom and the viewers will watch it on the website – zoom links will be shared to the speakers a day before the event and these zoom links should not be shared outside

Talk Time

Each speaker can talk for 15 min and some more time to share their ideas and inputs during the panel discussion which follows it

Moderator Opportunities

The speaker can also choose to be a moderator of the event – the moderator is the one who introduces the speaker to the viewers and also focuses on the time management of the speeches and keeps the discussions focussed

Panel Discussions

The panel discussions will be one per theme of the event nation wise as to how various aspects of transformation can be brought thru health, education, and environment etc. as depicted in the themes of the event and how each speaker can be a part of this on-going evolution of the world

If you don't want to be a speaker but want to be only as a viewer

Yes, you can be that by simply registering yourself as a participant of the event

Inauguration and Valediction

Each GTF event of that particular nation will have inauguration and valediction during which some keynote addresses will be delivered apart from the announcement of future events and conclusions drawn from various individual talks and discussions of the event

Pre-event Get-Together

There will be a pre-event get-together with all the speakers' at least one week before the event for any suggestions, inputs and clarifications etc.

Post-event Get-Together

After the event is over, all the speakers of that particular state/province/region will join for a re-union to discuss about how we all can take it forward to various districts / municipalities the next year

Council Membership of THE WORLD UNITED

THE WORLD UNITED (TWU) invites each speaker to be a part of the council for convergence of the collective consciousness so as to have a powerful impact of the combined wisdom – this council membership is basically an announcement to the world about the efficacy of influence of the unity consciousness which is most important in the present times

To become a member of the council, please register here –
